

Civics: Course Outline

Instructor: T. Popple

tpopple@scdsb.on.ca

Classroom 248

My Website: tpopple.weebly.com

Workroom 240

This half-credit course will provide students with the opportunity to develop a variety of skills so they can live, understand, and participate in society. You are a citizen of the world! Just one person can make a difference in the world, being informed about issues allows you to make that difference. Remember, your midterm report card mark is your final mark in this course.

EVALUATION

70% = Term Marks

30% = Final Mark

This is an open-level course, which means there will be students of all learning styles working together in the same environment. By being respectful of others, and by asking for help when needed you can all contribute to making this a successful learning experience for everyone.

General notes about this course:

- ✓ This is your credit! I am available via email or during most lunch periods whenever you need help or clarification on an issue. See me for help.
- ✓ There will be assessment pieces throughout each unit
- ✓ You will create a major project in this class
- ✓ Attendance is a requirement! Lessons are not easy to get caught up on.
- ✓ If you are absent on a test day you must provide a note from your parent or doctor the next day or you will receive a mark of zero.

There are two main units for this course:

1. Global Citizenship
2. Government & Law Making

"Knowledge comes by eyes always open and working hands; and there is no knowledge that is not power." By Ralph Waldo Emerson